V C Sajjanar inaugurates plantation drive at MANUU

Hyderabad:

Commissionerate of Police Cyberabad, V C Sajjanar, IPS today evening inaugurated a plantation drive at Maulana Azad National Urdu University (MANUU), Hyderabad by planting a sapling in the front lawn of the lecture hall complex.

Dr. Mohammad Aslam Parvaiz, Vice Chancellor, Dr. M A Sikandar, Registrar, Mr. Ghouse Mohiuddin, Additional DCP Cyberabad, Prof. Abul Kalam, Proctor and others also took part in the drive.

Mr. Sajjanar lauded the initiative taken by MANUU and expressed the hope that other institutions will also follow the suit and make the environment healthy. Dr. Aslam Parvaiz emphasized the importance of clean and green environs and the key role played by the trees in maintaining the eco system.

Prof. Abul Kalam, the man behind the initiative, informed that around one thousand grown up saplings (upto 12 feet) of eco friendly trees namely Neem, Ashoka, Gulmohar, the Indian Laburnum etc. are being planted in an effort to make the environment of the campus clean and healthy. This will also help in maintaining the underground water level, he pointed out. Faculty and staff members of the University have contributed generously in this noble cause.

Mr. Anees Azmi, Incharge Horticulture, Prof. Naseemuddin Farees, Prof. Haseebuddin Quadri and large number of students and staff members were present.
