The Department offers Diploma in Elementary Education (D. El. Ed), Bachelor of Education (B.Ed.), Master of Education (M.Ed.), Master of Philosophy (M.Phil.) and Doctor of Philosophy

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

Education is an important instrument for social and economic development of the country education is the process of facilitating learning, acquisition of knowledge, skills, values, beliefs and habits. It gives us a knowledge of the world around us and develops perspective of looking at life. It serves as a means of development of personality it helps us to build opinions and have points of view on things in life. It completely changes our mind and personality and helps us to attain the positive attitude. The knowledge attained through education opens doors to a lot of opportunities for better prospects in career growth.

A diverse range of minorities exist in India, who often faces discrimination, marginalization and exclusion. International human rights law, underpinned by the principle of quality, guarantees the right to education of everyone, yet minorities are likely to be denied of their right to education. According to minority rights group International (2009), p. 13) the majority of children who are out of school belong to minority commands are indigenous children. who are regularly deprived of access to quality education.

The Government as per MHRD is committed to address the existing backwardness in education of minorities. Prime Ministers 15 point programme, inter alia aims to enhance opportunities for education of minorities ensuring an equitable share in economic activities and employment. Ministry of HRD has taken several significant initiatives during XI five year plan and the momentum of which are being continued and accelerated during the XII five year plan. National Monitoring Committee for Minorities Education (NMCMC) has been constituted for running schemes for the improvement of Educational and Economic status of minorities.

In the above context, Department of Education & Training wants to promote debate, discussions and deliberations of Minorities issues with special reference to Education through organizing a two day National Conference.
