Skilled teacher an asset : Renu Batra Training programmes conclude at MANUU

Hyderabad:

“A skillful teacher is an asset for both the students and the institution”. Dr. Renu Batra, Additional Secretary, UGC New Delhi expressed the view while delivering valedictory address of orientation programme held recently. She urged the teachers, specially dealing with higher education, to equip themselves with the latest academic skills and techniques.

UGC - Human Resource Development Centre (HRDC) of Maulana Azad National Urdu University organized a month long orientation course in which 59 participants took part from various colleges/universities from different states.

The Centre also organized a valedictory function for Refresher Course for Commerce and Management teachers. The Chief Guest, Prof. Venugopal Reddy, Chairman, AP State Commission of Higher Education (APSCHE) in his valedictory address highlighted the importance of the course and the development of commerce and management in the present day context.

Dr. M. A. Sikandar, Registrar and Director I/c UGC-HRDC in his presidential address spoke about the uniqueness of both the programmes and outlined their objectives and importance. He commended the efforts by HRDC to conduct the courses successfully.

In the refresher course a total of 55 participants from different states took part. In the feed back given by them, they opined that courses refreshed their knowledge and motivated them to be aware of the latest trends in the field of study. They thanked the UGC-HRDC for giving them the opportunity to participate.

Certificates were also distributed among participants of both the courses.

Dr. Tahseen Bilgrami, Deputy Director of UGC-HRDC welcomed the gathering and presented the report of orientation course, while Dr. Shaikh Kamruddin, course coordinator presented the refresher course report.

Dr. Ishtiyahq Ahmad, Assistant Professor, UGC-HRDC proposed vote of thanks.
